

Saskatchewan German Culture Assistance Fund Inc. (SGCAF)
Registered Charity

Call for Donations

The Saskatchewan German Culture Assistance Fund Inc. (SGCAF) is a registered charity, a charitable corporation incorporated under the Non-profit Corporations Act of Saskatchewan. The charity is designated to preserving and furthering German culture in the province.

One of the objectives of SGCAF is to support youth and German language learning in Saskatchewan. Consider becoming a proud donor of the German Language Award for High School Students in Saskatchewan, supporting two annual awards of $500 each for high school students finishing German 20 or 30. Your donation is important for us and encourages young people in their educational experience.

Donors (organizations, families, individuals) who would like to support German language and education can do so by donating to SGCAF in accordance with the objectives of SGCAF.

How do I make a donation?

Please fill out the donation card and send it, along with cheque made out to the Saskatchewan German Culture Assistance Fund to the following address:
SGCAF, 510 Cynthia Street, Saskatoon SK S7L 7K7, Canada

After making a donation, the donor will receive an official receipt for income tax purposes. The charity will deduct 5% of each donation to cover administration fees.

Please contact the SGCAF office for more information on how to make a donation.
